

2019 Awards for Excellence Celebrating 100 Years

Best Dining Award

And the winner is...

Para Hills Community Club

The Para Hills Community Club prides itself on good service, good food, and value for money, offering a complete dining experience.

Recently appointing a new head chef, there is a freshness to the menus on offer, supported by the ever friendly staff who happily provide high quality service and attention to detail for all their diners.

The Para Hills Community Club provides extensive car parking, multiple entrances to the restaurant with a fully serviced bistro bar, barista coffee facilities and a cake fridge.

They look at their dining experience as a whole with all judges commenting on the level of hospitality provided to them throughout their dining experience.

Congratulations Para Hills Community Club!
