

2019 Awards for Excellence Celebrating 100 Years

Club Chef of the Year

And the winner is...

Jason Olivier

Henley Surf Life Saving Club

Jason produced for the judges a Chargrilled prawn and asian cous cous accompanied by a stuff mushroom appetiser. He followed his entrée and appetiser with a whole Ocean Trout served with a fruit and herb salad.

Jason impressed the judges with his attitude, his cleanliness during his cook and the visual and flavour appeal of his dishes. Special commendation must go to his thinking outside the box by serving a salad with blueberries and mandarin atop a whole baked fish – a particularly memorable meal.

The Henley Surf Life Saving Club is now one of the venues of choice for Wedding and Corporate functions, thanks in part to Jason's contribution in both the options and quality provided from his kitchen.

Congratulations Jason.
