Celebrating 100 Years

Volunteer of the Year

And the winner is...

Pat Barnes

Cadell Club

Pat is a resourceful and tireless volunteer who has gone above and beyond for the Cadell Club and through her selfless efforts has helped to ensure the survival of the Cadell Club. Due to financial challenges, the Committee made the difficult decision to revert to volunteer cooks. Pat volunteered as kitchen manager and has devoted many hours to working closely with the cooking teams to provide a variety of meals at a reasonable cost. Pat has willingly taken on the role of running the kitchen, ordering stock, preparing and pricing menus. The Club is now back on an even financial keel and trading well. Congratulations and a sincere thank you Pat who is a deserving winner of the Clubs SA 2019 Volunteer of the Year.
